

Emergencies – what to do

For all life-threatening or serious incidents at the club or on the water ring 999 - police, fire, ambulance or coastguard

Boathouse address:

Tyne Amateur Rowing Club, Water Row, Newburn, Newcastle upon Tyne, NE15 8NL

What3Words: refers.span.door

If asked for directions, emphasise the club is on the north bank of the river, just along from Newburn Bridge and the Boathouse pub.

The other main emergency shore access point for the club's usual training outings is: Derwenthaugh Marina, off Tundry Way, Blaydon, Gateshead, NE21 5LL.

After dialling 999 and when confident help is on the way, contact an official of the rowing club as indicated in next section.

For less serious incidents that still require club assistance - CONTACT US

If at the club, ask if an official of the club is present and talk to them. If the bar is open, they might be able to help. Otherwise telephone us as below; should the first named individual not answer the phone, proceed down the list. The club does not have a landline at present.

First aid

If an injury or illness occurs that can be treated on-site or if an ambulance has been summoned but the patient would benefit from immediate attention, seek help from a qualified first-aider.

The kitchen has a location specific first aid kit in a marked drawer. Each club coaching launch has a small first aid kit and a box of emergency foil blankets in the black safety bag. There is a first aid kit in a green carrying case on the cleaning station table on the ground floor of the clubhouse. Spare first aid supplies are held in a marked cupboard at the top of the internal stairs in the clubhouse.

The club has a defibrillator, It is located on the front outside wall of the 'old' boathouse; a mobile phone is required to get a code for its release.

Fire - see separate sheet alongside this one, online or on noticeboards.
