Junior Rules

There rules have been discussed with and agreed by junior members

- You will listen to and respond to all coaches, junior volunteers and committee members immediately.
- You will use the equipment in the manner in which you have been shown and will treat the equipment with care and respect.
- You will respect the coaches, Tyne river users and each other at all times.
- Swearing, bullying and rude or aggressive behaviour towards others is not permitted.
- You will leave all the areas around the rowing club, boat house and changing rooms in a clean and tidy state.
- You will follow the rules of the river when rowing or sculling
- Parents/guardians are to deal with any issues of discipline by their children immediately.
- Failure to follow these guidelines will result in you being removed from the water and land training immediately and without question.

Note about your personal information

Personal data which is provide to the Club will be held securely and used by the Club only in accordance with the Data Protection Act for administering your membership and for sending you information about events and activities. This form will be held by the Secretary or Membership Secretary.

Note about photographs

The Club does not have a formal policy on taking and use of photographs of members. However we are very aware of the sensitivity of this issue and may move to adopting such a policy. In the meantime we generally follow the useful advice given in the British Rowing advice note on safeguarding and photography - see:

<http://www.britishrowing.org/upload/files/Association/Welfare/ARASPCG10.pdf>.

There may be occasions when a photo is taken of members participating in land or river training. They may be shown on the Club website, in Club publications or national rowing publications. Where possible, will seek the agreement of junior members and their parents for such photographs to be used. We may also from time to time video crews in action to assist in coaching. We will inform junior members in advance that this will be happening.

For further details about the club contact Jerry Barker, Tyne Rowing Club, Water Row, Newburn, Newcastle upon Tyne NE15 8NL, mobile 07985 003304, email 25jerrybarker@gmail.com

This registration covers the duration of a Learn to Row course, and Junior training sessions with the club until the end of September, for which a one-off all-inclusive fee of £80 is payable.

Should you be invited to join the club on a permanent basis after the end of September, then you will be required to pay the current monthly subscriptions.

- I wish to join Tyne Rowing Club for the duration of the course and up the end of September 2017
- I agree to abide by the Junior Rules set out overleaf and by any other advice given to you by my coach.
- I understand that rowing brings with it some risks and that I have a part to play in reducing risks to myself and to others.
- I confirm that I do not suffer a medical condition which might affect my ability to train or to row or to take charge of a boat or that I have declared any relevant condition in the Medical Information section of the Registration Form.
- I confirm that I am able to swim at least 100 metres and tread water for at least two minutes (please delete if you are not sure you can do this - you can still do the course, but we prefer to know).

Consent of parent or guardian

By signing and returning this form, I agree to the named junior taking part in the activities of the Club, both off and on the water.

I note that I will be kept informed of these activities - for example timing, transport details for events, who will be in charge, etc.

I understand in the event of injury or illness all reasonable steps will be taken to contact me but that the injury or illness may have to be dealt at the time by appropriately qualified persons.
